The full version of the District's most recent school and school district accountability report, as issued by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction under section 115.385 of the state statutes, can be accessed via the following page on the District's website (if the report has been issued by DPI): <http://www.baraboo.k12.wi.us/ci/schoolreport.cfm>

Educational options for students who are enrolled in the School District of Baraboo that involve part-time attendance at an educational institution other than a school within the School District of Baraboo include the following:

- The Course Options Program, which
  - provides educational opportunities to apply for approval to take up to 2 courses at a time at another educational institution;
  - is subject to state and local eligibility requirements, including the limitation that the courses must satisfy a high school graduation requirement; and
  - includes certain District-approved dual credit opportunities that the District offers in conjunction with a partner institution of higher education.
- The Youth Options Program, which
  - provides opportunities to apply for approval to take courses at certain institutions of higher education; and
  - is available to students who are enrolled in the 11th or 12th grade.

Additional educational options for children who reside in the District that involve full-time enrollment/attendance at a school, program, or other educational institution that is not a school or instrumentality of the School District of Baraboo include the following:

- High school students meeting certain age and other eligibility requirements may be permitted to attend a technical college or certain other programs for the purpose of completing a program leading to the student's high school graduation or to a high school equivalency diploma.
- Full-time Open Enrollment involving physical attendance in a public school of a nonresident school district or attendance through a virtual charter school that is associated with a nonresident school district.
- Beginning in the 2016-17 school year, a child with a disability who meets the program's specific eligibility requirements may apply to attend an eligible, participating private school under a scholarship awarded through the state's "Special Needs Scholarship Program," as established under section 115.7915 of the state statutes.
- Enrollment in a private school of the family's choosing (at the family's own cost, as applicable).
- Enrollment in a home-based private educational program as provided under state law.

Educational options for children who reside in the School District of Baraboo but who are enrolled in and attending a private school or home-based private educational program include the following:

- Such students have the opportunity to attend summer school classes/programs offered in the district.

- Private school students in the high school grades have the opportunity to apply for approval to take up to two courses per semester in a District school, pursuant to section 118.145(4) of the state statutes.
- Students who are enrolled in a home-based private educational program have the opportunity to:
  - Apply for approval to take up to two courses per semester in public schools as provided under section 118.53
  - Participate in District interscholastic athletics and other District extracurricular activities as provided under section 118.133

For more information about any of the educational options listed in this notice, please contact the District's main administrative office at (608) 355-3950 or the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction.
